SCHOOL OF LAW

FROM: AUSL MEDICAL CLINIC
TO: ALL CONCERNED
DATE: SEPTEMBER 14, 2024
SUBJECT: HEALTH PROTOCOL FOR THE MIDTERM EXAMINATIONS

In preparation for the return of the onsite classes, please be guided by the following:

Before Entry

To maximize the well-being, and health benefits for students, and to ensure a well-conceived emergency preparedness, students are required to submit the duly accomplished Medical Information Sheet online. Those who have submitted before need not submit again. This form can be accessed through the AIMS Portal (arellanolaw.edu).

This would aid AUSL health personnel deliver the most appropriate and effective treatment and support, as well as in assessing and responding to health issues when the need arises.

Rest assured that all the data gathered will be strictly confidential. Students, however, may opt not to answer certain sensitive questions.

Students with fever, flu-like symptoms, and unexplained or undiagnosed rashes are discouraged to take the exam onsite.

While inside the campus

Wearing of proper face masks indoor is optional but is highly encouraged for those who are pregnant, senior citizens, and individuals who are immunocompromised.

Everyone is encouraged to wash and sanitize hands frequently. Hand Sanitizers, alcohol, and liquid soaps are provided at designated areas around the campus and inside AUSL school premises.

Optimized ventilation as well as proper hygiene and other measures to avoid transmission risks will continue to be implemented to prevent the spread of infection in our university setting.

While the state of public health emergency has already been lifted, the health sector of the AUSL shall continue to remain vigilant to ensure adequate health system capacity in the event that it is required.

Finally, updated guidelines from time to time will be issued based on the Alert Level System issued by the Department of Health and the Inter-Agency Task Force for the Management of Emerging Infectious Diseases.

Please be guided accordingly.

For your information and guidance.
